

POST-COVID 19: Opportunities for European Companies in the Robust Supply Chain & Ecosystem in Penang, Malaysia

APRIL 28, 2021 | 1600 - 1730 (Malaysia / Singapore time)

APRIL 28, 2021 | 1000 - 1130 (Central European Time)

REGISTER NOW!

Who should attend and Why?

This virtual session aims to provide a platform for businesses, consultants and investors to understand Penang, Malaysia's investment climate, industry landscape, success stories as well as initiatives that make Penang the supply chain powerhouse in the South East Asia.

Scan to Register

OUR SPEAKERS

MARCO WINTER

Executive Director

Malaysian Dutch Business Council
(Moderator)

LEE KAH CHOON

Special Investment Advisor to the Chief Minister of Penang

RASHIDAH OTHMAN

Director

Malaysian Investment Development
Authority (MIDA) London

GLEN BROWNLIE

Managing Director

OSRAM Opto Semiconductors
Germany

MARK ARTHUR

Managing Director

Smith & Nephew Operations
United Kingdom

PAUL MORACH

General Manager

Hittech Wemac
The Netherlands

PENANG, MALAYSIA

QUICK FACTS

EUR 6.8 billion manufacturing investments

[2019 - 2020] 88% were in Machinery & Equipment, E&E, and Medtech industries

Contribution to Global Semiconductor Exports

Accounted for an estimated 5% of global semiconductor exports in 2019

EUR 63 billion of exports Y2020

5-year CAGR: 11%
Contributed 32% of Malaysia's total exports

Home to Global Top Companies

- Over 300 MNCs
- >60 GBS/SSO companies
- 17 Global Fortune 500 companies
- 6 of the Global Top 30 Medical Device companies

PROGRAMME

Time (MY/ SG)	Time (CET)	Zoom Program
1545	0945	• Participants login
1600	1000	• Opening Remarks by InvestPenang
1605	1005	• Welcome and Short Briefing on Investment Opportunities by InvestPenang
1615	1015	• Short Briefing on Malaysia's Investment Scenario by MIDA
1625	1025	• Experience Sharing by European Companies in Penang (OSRAM, Smith & Nephew and Hittech Wemac)
1655	1055	• Moderated Discussion, Q&A Session
1730	1130	• End of Program

CONTACTS

Mr Saiful Rizal (saiful@investpenang.gov.my)
Mr Chen William (william@investpenang.gov.my)